

BASSTION

DRUM & BASS CREW

// RETROSPECTION

Basstion Drum&Bass Crew are originally from Stuttgart in South Germany and were founded by the DJs Stranger, Flare 5 and Inju in 2000.

Basstion as a crew arose from two projects the friends did: Stranger had created an online drum&bass magazine for South Germany with events and reviews about the drum & bass scene.

Inju had a radio project at a local radio station. Since 1999 already they hosted this D&B radio show together.

This show is still spreading the D&B vibe now – 7 years later – every tuesday night from 10–00 pm! The radio show is now hosted by DJ Reveal who joined the crew some month later after the foundation in 2000.

At the end of 2001 Flare 5 and Stranger moved to Berlin while Inju went to Leipzig in the Eastern part of Germany to study.

Ever since, they tried to organize parties together or to play out together either in Leipzig, Berlin or Stuttgart or in any other city they have been booked till then.

To backup the team, two other DJs joined the crew in 2006: Jay who comes from Leipzig and Rambun who is a well known young DJ talent from Stuttgart.

"Basstion" is a wordplay and originates from the french–latin word "Bastion" (stronghold, bastion).
